THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE CHAPTER of GAMMA SIGMA DELTA
The Honor Society of Agriculture

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

Name and Organization

Section 1. The name of the organization shall be The University of Tennessee Chapter of Gamma Sigma Delta, the Honor Society of Agriculture, hereafter referred to as Gamma Sigma Delta.

ARTICLE II

Objectives and Purpose

Section 1. The objective of the Chapter is to encourage high standards of scholarship, character, leadership, and proficiency, in all branches of agricultural and related sciences, education, and industry to include traditional agriculture, natural resources, and veterinary medicine.

Section 2. The purpose of the Chapter shall be implemented by conferring membership, as an honor, on those students in the Institute of Agriculture who have shown exceptional ability in their studies and on those alumni, faculty and staff members of the Institute who have rendered signal service to the cause of agriculture and related disciplines. All laws, rules, and regulations of this Chapter shall be in harmony with this purpose and shall be so framed as to emphasize and promote the honorary and service character of the Society.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1. Those who are eligible for membership in the Chapter and the International Society of Gamma Sigma Delta are indicated below.

A. Undergraduate students in the College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources (CASNR)

No more than 15% of the senior class can be members;

- (1). Juniors (at least 60 semester hours completed) or seniors (at least 90 semester hours completed) who have been in residence at least one academic year before election and have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or better for all university work (out of a possible 4.0);
- (2). Rank in the upper 5% of the junior class if juniors or in the upper 15% of the senior class if seniors; (3). Have been nominated on the prescribed form and endorsed by two Gamma Sigma Delta members (at least one a faculty member) who regard the nominee as having personal qualities, including leadership ability, that give evidence of a successful career in agriculture or associated sciences.

B. Veterinary medicine students

Students of the College of Veterinary Medicine who meet all of the following requirements:

- (1). Have been in residence in the College of Veterinary Medicine at The University of Tennessee for at least one academic year;
- (2). Have completed two years of academic requirements with a 3.50 average or better in the College of Veterinary Medicine and be in the upper 15 percent of the respective class; and
- (3). Have been nominated on the prescribed form and endorsed by two Gamma Sigma Delta members (at least one a faculty member) who regard the nominee as having personal qualities, including leadership ability, that give evidence of making worthwhile contributions in this field.

C. Graduate students

Students of the Graduate School who meet all of the following requirements:

Have been nominated on the prescribed form and endorsed by two Gamma Sigma Delta members (at least one a faculty member) who regard the nominee as having personal qualities, including leadership ability, that give evidence of making worthwhile contributions in their field and as having demonstrated ability to conduct research and/or advanced study in agriculture or related sciences.

D. Faculty and staff

Faculty and staff in the Institute of Agriculture who are engaged in administration, extension, research, or teaching, or in sciences related to agriculture, and have been nominated on the prescribed form and endorsed by two Gamma Sigma Delta members (at least one a faculty member) who regard the nominee as having personal qualities, including leadership ability, that give evidence of making worthwhile contributions in their field.

E. Alumni

Alumni of the Colleges of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources or Veterinary Medicine of this institution, or graduates of other institutions that offer comparable degrees, and have rendered signal service to the cause of agriculture and related sciences.

F. Honorary

Honorary membership may be awarded to an individual not qualified for the above categories but who has furthered agriculture. Such membership is a prestigious award, limited to one such award per year.

Section 2. Election of members in this Chapter shall be made at meetings held for that purpose.

A. Previous to these meetings, nominations for membership may be made by any member using the official forms for that purpose and presenting them as required by the Membership Committee. From those forms the Committee shall prepare a list of persons eligible for membership according to Article III, Section 1.

B. Election of members shall be by a simple majority of all active members present at the meeting, with quorum rules in effect. Results of this election shall be tabulated and announced before adjournment of the meeting.

Section 3. Membership in a regularly chartered chapter of the Society may be transferred to this Chapter upon application to the Secretary.

Section 4. The active members of the Chapter shall consist of those members of Gamma Sigma Delta who have paid the annual dues as required by the Chapter. Members' names will be withdrawn from the active list after one year of nonpayment of dues (Bylaws Article VIII, Section 2). Active membership may be restored upon payment of one year's delinquent dues.

Section 5. Upon attaining retirement status, Chapter members may be retained on the active membership list without payment of annual dues, and, upon request, receive Chapter notices, and other publications of the Chapter.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

Section 1. The executive officers of this Chapter shall include the President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Historian.

Section 2. The President-elect shall be elected to a term of one year. The Secretary, Treasurer and Historian shall be elected for three-year terms, with their elections occurring on a staggered basis, so that only one office will be vacated on an annual basis.

Section 3. Nominations for the offices (except President) shall be submitted by the Nominating Committee at a spring semester meeting. Additional nominations shall be accepted from the floor.

Section 4. Election to the offices shall be by a simple majority vote of all active members present at the meeting, with quorum rules in effect.

Section 5. Term of office shall begin at the conclusion of the Spring Business/Initiation Meeting.
